2. Creditors may request access to the Disclosure Statement Depository by visiting titleiiiilandataroom.com.

3. The Disclosure Statement Depository will be made available only to the following parties or their representatives (collectively, “Eligible Creditors”): (i) current and former employees of the Commonwealth (also known as “public employees”); (ii) creditors of the Debtors for which a master proof of claim has been filed on such creditor’s behalf that has not otherwise been disallowed or expunged, (iii) creditors of the Debtors who have filed a proof of claim against one or more of the Debtors that has not been disallowed or expunged, (iv) creditors who were not required to file a proof of claim pursuant to the Bar Date Orders, or (v) creditors who are listed on the Debtors’ creditor matrix [ECF Nos. 10709, 1817, 830, as may be modified], in an amount greater than $0.00.¹

¹ “Bar Date Orders” refers to the Order (A) Establishing Deadlines and Procedures for Filing Proofs of Claims and (B) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [ECF No. 2521] and the Order (A) Extending Deadlines for Filing Proofs of Claim and (B) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [ECF No. 3160].

4. All Eligible Creditors wishing to access the Disclosure Statement Depository must first navigate to titleiiiplandataroom.com; request access to the site; designate whether they wish to have access to non-confidential documents only or to confidential documents as well; affirm they are or represent a creditor of the Debtors; provide certain biographical information, including their name, address, telephone number, email address, proof of claim number (if available), and identify their creditor type, and if they are not the creditor, the name of the creditor and, if applicable, the representative institution they are associated with; and certify that they are eligible for access to the Disclosure Statement Depository pursuant to categories (i)-(iv) in paragraph 3 above. Access requests will be processed as promptly as reasonably practicable.

5. Eligible Creditors granted access to the Disclosure Statement Depository will receive access to all non-confidential materials posted in the Disclosure Statement Depository. To the extent Eligible Creditors also wish to access Confidential Information, such parties must agree to comply with the Protective Order annexed as Exhibit 2 to the Order, and execute the Protective Order Subscription annexed as Exhibit 3 to the Order. The Protective Order Subscription will be available to creditors by visiting titleiiiplandataroom.com and requesting access to confidential documents. Creditors will then be directed to OnTask, a secure signing service, in order to review the Protective Order and collect an Eligible Creditor's electronic signature on the Protective Order Subscription. Any Eligible Creditor who executes the Protective Order Subscription shall be provided access to the Confidential portion of the Disclosure Statement Depository within one (1) business day of execution and submission thereof, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

6. The Disclosure Statement Depository shall contain an electronic index of all Documents in the Disclosure Statement Depository. This index will contain information about both Documents in the Disclosure Statement Depository containing Confidential Information, and Documents in the Disclosure Statement Depository that do not contain Confidential Information. The Debtors shall use their reasonable best efforts to categorize Documents by topic; provided, however, that the Disclosure Statement Depository shall contain a disclaimer expressly stating, among other things, that (i) the Debtors shall not be responsible for the mis-categorization of any particular Document, (ii) each Eligible Creditor should not rely upon the categorization of the Documents and should review all categories of Documents in their entirety, and (iii) the Debtors shall not have any liability to any Eligible Creditor or its representatives resulting from the use of Confidential Information materials by an Eligible Creditor or its representatives, including, without limitation, with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any Confidential Information provided.

7. Notwithstanding the placement of any document in the Disclosure Statement Depository and the review of any such document by an Eligible Creditor, the Oversight Board and the Debtors shall maintain the right to object to the use or introduction of any document in the Disclosure Statement Depository in any matter or proceeding on relevance grounds or as otherwise permitted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Evidence and applicable law; provided, however, that, to the extent that a Document contained in the Disclosure Statement Depository has been created by the Debtors, such party shall have waived the right to object to the use or introduction of such document on the basis of authenticity. Additionally, to the extent that the Debtors inadvertently include privileged materials in the Disclosure Statement Depository, it shall not be deemed to comprise any waiver of any applicable privilege. Such protective measures are necessary to provide the requesting parties access to relevant materials in a timely and efficient manner.

8. In order to streamline access to the Disclosure Statement Depository and prevent overloading the Disclosure Statement Depository's website, the Oversight Board may make some or all Documents included in the Disclosure Statement Depository available to some or all Eligible Creditors by other means, including but not limited to transmitting such Documents via a secure file transfer protocol. The Oversight Board shall make the determination to provide Documents in such fashion in its own discretion, and all other terms of use and access to the Documents included in the Disclosure Statement Depository, whether provided via the depository or via secure file transfer protocol (including relating to the use of Confidential Information), shall be identical.

Protective Order

1. Definitions:

a. “Document” means all documents and information in the Disclosure Statement Depository (the “Data Room”).

b. “Confidential Information” means all Documents in the Data Room that the Debtors consider in good faith to contain personal, proprietary, or otherwise confidential information that would have a detrimental effect on the Debtors or other third parties if it was publicly disclosed.

2. Permissible Use of Confidential Information. All parties to this Protective Order, including their agents and representatives, agree to maintain the confidentiality and avoid improper disclosure of any Confidential Information in the Data Room. This includes any information derived from the Confidential Information, such as summaries, copies, or presentations containing or referencing Confidential Information. All Documents made available in the Depository shall be used only in connection with evaluating the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement and not for any other purpose. Each Eligible Creditor will safeguard Confidential Information from unauthorized disclosure with the same standard of care each Eligible Creditor uses in maintaining the confidentiality of its own confidential information of a similar nature.

3. Confidentiality Subscription. Eligible Creditors who are interested in obtaining access to Confidential Information will be directed to sign a Protective Order Subscription utilizing OnTask, a secure signing service. Before an Eligible Creditor or any of its agents or representatives may access Confidential Information, they must read this Protective Order and execute the Protective Order Subscription in the form attached as Exhibit 3 via OnTask’s secure signing service.

4. Disclosure of Confidential Information. Without obtaining the Debtors' prior written consent, Confidential Information may be disclosed only to the following persons:

a. any mediator or court (or their representatives) taking part in the administration or adjudication of the Disclosure Statement (collectively, the "Courts"), in compliance with the procedures listed in paragraph 6 below;

b. persons who are the authors, addressees, or recipients of documents containing Confidential Information if they have previously had lawful access to those documents;

c. professional court reporters and their staff; and

d. any Eligible Creditor's agents or representatives, including in house and outside counsel, professional personnel (including but not limited to IT staff), testifying or consulting experts, anticipated or actual witnesses testifying in connection with the Disclosure Statement, and translators or other outside litigation support vendors (collectively, "Representatives"). Eligible Creditors shall be responsible for ensuring their Representatives read this Protective Order and comply with its terms, and each Eligible Creditor shall be responsible for any breach of this Protective Order by any of their Representatives. Attorneys for Eligible Creditors may only provide Confidential Information to their clients after their clients visit OnTask's secure signing service and execute the Protective Order Subscription on the OnTask site.

5. Demand for Confidential Information. If an Eligible Creditor or its Representatives are requested or required by court process or law to disclose Confidential Information, the Eligible Creditor will promptly give the Oversight Board written notice (to the attention of Martin J. Bienenstock, Esq. and Brian S. Rosen, Esq., Proskauer Rose LLP, Eleven Times Square, New York, New York 10036) of such request or requirement as far in advance of any disclosure as is practicable so the parties may seek an appropriate protective order or waiver in compliance with provisions of this Protective Order.

6. Submission of Confidential Information to the Court. Any Confidential Information filed with or otherwise submitted to the Court shall be filed or submitted under seal consistent with the local rules for the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico, and any applicable case management procedures. If any Confidential Information is used in any court proceeding, it shall not lose its designation through such use. Confidential Information shall not be copied or reproduced in an Eligible Creditor's objection to the Disclosure Statement, unless it is reasonably necessary to include Confidential Information in such an objection. If so, the Eligible Creditor's objection must be filed under seal in accordance with the requirements of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico, all copies shall be subject to this Protective Order and must include a "CONFIDENTIAL" designation.

7. Challenges to Designations of Confidentiality. If an Eligible Creditor believes any documents contained in the Depository have been improperly designated by the Debtors as containing Confidential Information, the Eligible Creditor may, after attempting to resolve the matter by agreement, apply to the Court for a ruling that certain documents or testimony designated as Confidential Information, or the information therein, is not entitled to confidential status or protection. The confidential status of the documents, testimony, or information at issue shall be maintained pending the Court's ruling on the motion and any appeal therefrom. The Debtors' failure to designate Documents as "CONFIDENTIAL" shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of the claim of confidentiality. Upon prompt notice from the Oversight Board of a failure to designate, Eligible Creditors and their Representatives shall cooperate to restore the confidentiality of the Confidential Information.

8. Nonwaiver of Privileges. Disclosure of documents (including documents containing Confidential Information) pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order shall not be deemed to waive attorney-client privilege, work-product protection or other privilege or immunity that would otherwise attach to the document or information produced or to other documents or information. If an Eligible Creditor or their Representative reviews any information in the Data Room that is either (i) subject to a good faith claim of privilege or (ii) upon reasonable review appear to be subject to a legally recognized privilege, the Eligible Creditor or their Representative shall provide immediate notice to the Debtors and shall not review the information. Upon notification by the Debtors that any of the Debtors has inadvertently included information in the Depository that should not have been included (whether because of applicable privilege or otherwise), each Eligible Creditor shall certify that they have deleted or destroyed any downloaded or printed copies of such documents within twenty-four (24) hours of notification.

9. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information Upon Plan Confirmation. Within sixty (60) days after the entry of a final order (or orders) confirming the Plan, or the exhaustion of any appeals relating thereto, Confidential Information and all copies of same, and all documents containing or referring to Confidential Information, and copies of any pleading or paper filed of record with the Court, shall either be returned to the Debtors or destroyed.

10. Application of Securities Laws. Any Eligible Creditor who signs a Protective Order Subscription understands that, as a result of the receipt of Confidential Information, he, she, or it may be deemed to be in possession of material, nonpublic information relating to the Debtors, and that the United States securities laws apply to such person. If an Eligible Creditor or its Representative who signs a Protective Order Subscription also trades securities, such person represents that it will ensure such trades do not violate any federal or state securities laws.

11. Remedies, Jurisdiction and Governing Law. Specific performance and injunctive relief are available as nonexclusive remedies upon proof of any breach of this Protective Order. Each Eligible Creditor and the Debtors shall confer in good faith over any disagreement in connection with this Protective Order before claiming noncompliance to any third party or this Court, provided that the Debtors shall have the right to refuse continued access to the Data Room to such Eligible Creditor and its Representatives if the Debtors determine that such Eligible Creditor has breached its obligations.
